

My rights count too. Please leave NJ's Do Not Call program as is. I FINALLY have my life and privacy back -- no more dinner interruptions, insulting telemarketers and wasted time deleting messages from my answering machine. Leave it alone, please, and if you really want to be effective, make the national Do Not Call list the same as NJ's.